Dear Andrie,
 It's hard to believe that we're graduating at last and leaving behind all the past memories (B5b, 6, 7) But just think, Andrie of the times we walked to school, all those cars we loved to stop, the roses we snatched during summer school, the times I used to run barefoot up to your house at night just to talk. I hope these memories will never fade with you, either — I'll be visiting you again — barefoot & in jeans many more times. Have a very worth while' (or is that the wrong word?) semester at S.F. We must get together to compare notes often. The best of everything to you, Andrie, seriously, with love always, Claudia.
